This topic 'I want my Mummy' leads the children into the mystical world of the Ancient Egyptians. We will be asking ourselves... 'Who were the Ancient Egyptians?' The children will also develop their geography skills using maps and atlases to identify key places in Egypt. In history, they will discover how and why the pyramids were built and what they were used for and why the River Nile was so important to them. Also, they will discover who the pharaohs were and what was their role in society. Continuing with our theme, in DT, the children shall design and make their own Egyptian necklaces and an artefact from this time, highlighting the importance of artefacts.
